Marriage à la Russe!

Based on three acclaimed comedic one-act plays by Anton Chekhov

(In Greek with English supertitles)

November 4 – December 4, 2016

Hellenic Cultural Center: 27-09 Crescent St, Astoria, NY 11102

Three hilarious stories in three different settings: rural Russia (1886, winter); Thessaly, central Greece (1966, summer); New York City (2016, fall).

A merry-go-round of outrageous characters and situations, a farcical look at the battle of the sexes through space and time, and... a ubiquitous, omnipotent maid...

Men and women fight till they fall ... Will there be a wedding? What is a bear doing in a grieving widow's house? Which anniversary are we celebrating on November 4, 2016?

Anton Chekhov is a leading playwright of the late 19th and early 20th centuries and a seminal figure in modern theatre. These three comedic one-act plays—The Bear, The Proposal and The Anniversary—are among the most popular pieces in the contemporary dramatic repertoire.
